

Trump versus Harris in the 2024 US Elections

This election is too close to call. Both Kamala and Trump have powerful charts running good dashas but on the day of election accounting for transits I believe that Donald Trump has edge on Kamala Harris. Here is my rationale.

Kamala Harris

Kamala Harris has great chart - with Rahu exactly on her ascendant, which has helped her propel her so far. Rahu gives meteoric rises but with a cost. She has Amk-PK raja yogas in D1 and D9 which being activated NOW.

2020 was not fruitful when she ran the Democratic primaries. She withdrew in Dec 2019, before the lowas Caucuses in Jan 2020. She

She is in that precarious age of 60- and based on KN Rao's book Ups and Downs of Career- you can have a rise or fall. This is because- Jupiter completes 5 cycles and Saturn 2 cycles. They play a very important role especially at this time.

For Gemini lagna, Jupiter is the 7th and 10th lord, not very apt. Saturn is 9th lord but also the 8th lord. As we know from Laghu Parashari, Jupiter and Saturn are not best planets though they form 9-10 Raja Yoga for Gemini and Aries Ascendants.

Rahu dasha has been really powerful – in Rahu- Rahu she got reelected as California Attorney General in 2014, US Senator from California in Rahu- Jupiter.

Rahu- Saturn was between Aug 2017 to Jun did not get any delegate. Saturn gave her the 8th house effect. From a Jaimini perspective, during that time she was running Libra- Pisces. Using Libra chara lagna, 1-5 should be good timing but her retro Saturn did not give any benefit. In D-10, Saturn is in 10th house - with Rahu Saturn making 4-10 relationship. That did not help.

In August 2020, when she moved to Rahu-Mercury she was selected as VP candidate just when she had nodal Rahu return in her ascendant exactly at 2 degrees Gemini. Rahu did the job of propelling her. She was running Libra Pisces.

Now suddenly in July 2024, during Rahu Venus, when Rahu is transiting her 10th house, Biden was forced to step down and by virtue of being VP, she got propelled to the Presidential nomination. Rahu did the job. You never know, in next 3 months she can become president too because Biden is not keeping well too.

Astrologically, speaking Rahu has done its job.

In D10- there is exchange between 8th lord Saturn and 10th lord Jupiter. It is not best parivartana.

It is important to consider the pratyantar dashas on the transits on Day of Election- Nov 5th.

She is in Rahu- Venus- Moon in Vimoshottri. The kaksha points for all planets Mercury (rahu dispositor) and Venus are 0 and for Moon it is 1. Jupiter has 1 point and Saturn have 0 points.

She is running Libra-Leo-Aries. Aries is 11th house that has Moon GK. Libra- But you have Saturn that aspects from 8th house dampening it.

Remember Indira Gandhi, who has a terrific horoscope, with 3 different parivartanas including the 6-11 exchange of Jupiter and Venus, which is great for competition & elections, lost when she was turning 60 in 1971. She was in Saturn-Ketu period which is 2-12. Saturn is 7th and 8th lord.

K N Rao gave the reason that natal Saturn aspects to the 10th house can give a fall and Ketu is in 12th with mandi.

In Kamala's case she is in Rahu Venus, which are in good position, it has given that surprise and sudden rise getting Presidential nomination. Will it get her to become President contesting and winning an election? Will her Dur Yoga, 10th lord Jupiter in 12th house in D1 and 10th lord in 8th house in D10 play out? Using Nadi technique, will her retrograde Saturn in Aquarius-9th house that aspects her 10th house play a role?

Donald Trump

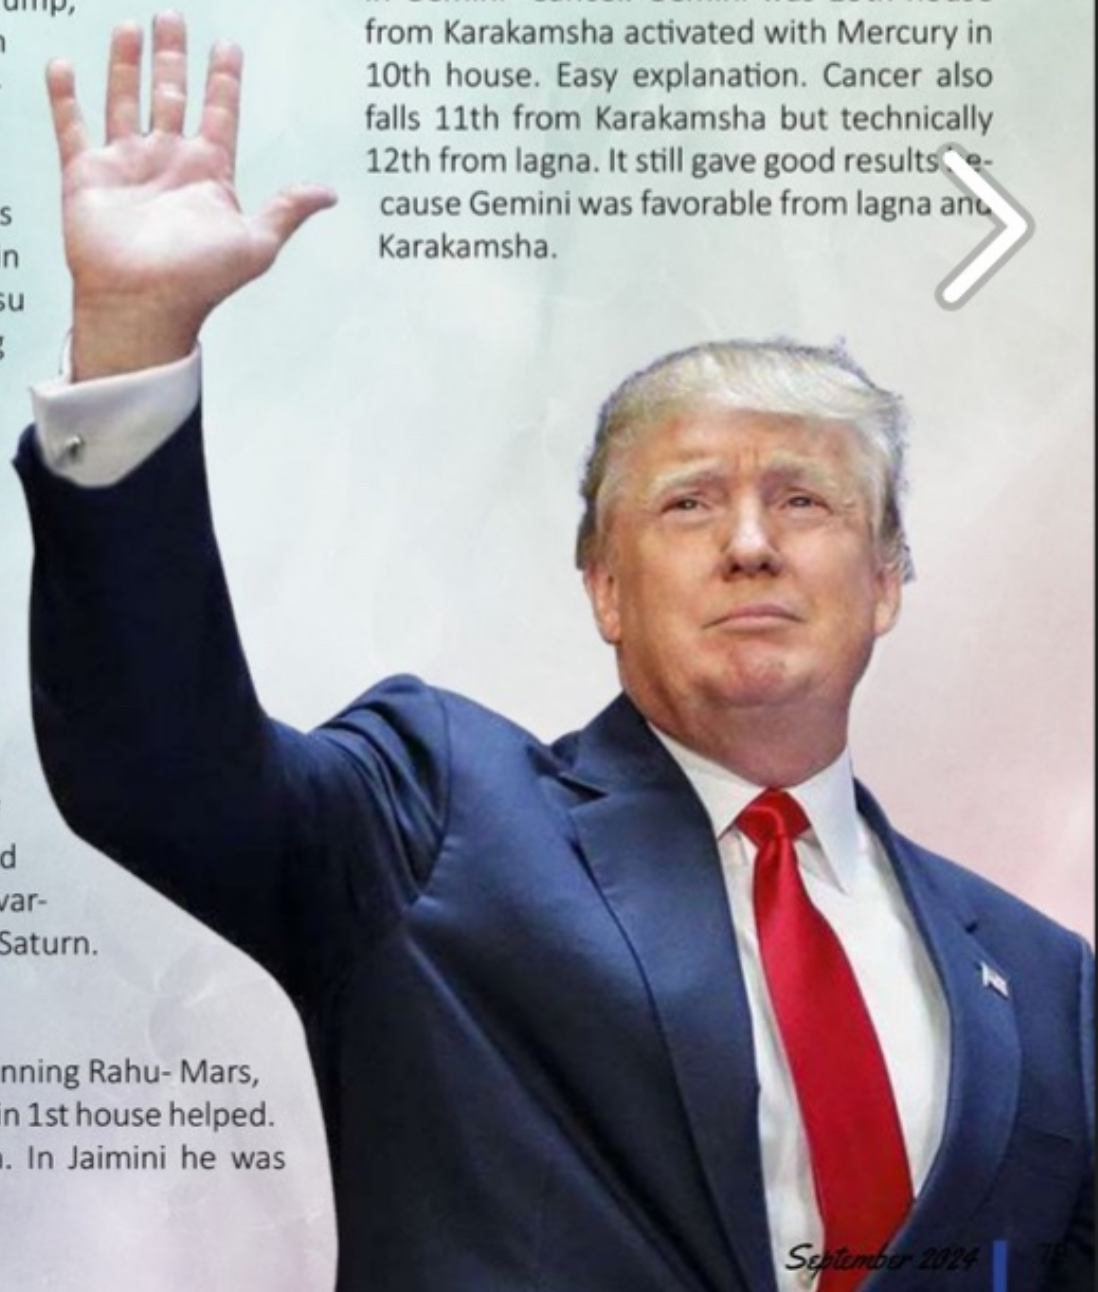

In contrast, Donald Trump, does not have slam dunk chances for victory.

in D1, he has Venus conjunct Saturn both in 12th house in Punarvasu (return of light) making it Vargottama. He has the Dur Yoga as well and has played out in his life with company bankruptcies and election loss in Nov 2020.

In D10, he has debilitated Jupiter in 4th house and Venus and Saturn in 6th house of Pisces. Jupiter is 3rd and 6th lord but is in parivartana with 4,5th lord Saturn. Venus is exalted.

In Nov 2016, he was running Rahu- Mars, Rahu in 10th and Mars in 1st house helped. Mars was Yoga Karaka. In Jaimini he was in Gemini- Cancer. Gemini was 10th house from Karakamsha activated with Mercury in 10th house. Easy explanation. Cancer also falls 11th from Karakamsha but technically 12th from lagna. It still gave good results because Gemini was favorable from lagna and Karakamsha.

In Nov 2020, he was running Jupiter- Saturn- Rahu. Jupiter is 5th and 8th lord and good planet for Leo lagna. Saturn is 6th lord and 7th lord in 12th though forming Vipareet raja yoga. The 4-6 Parivartana in D10 did not help. But it is clearly explained in Jaimini, as he was running Cancer- Pisces- Scorpio. Pisces is natal 8th house, 8th and 12th pada. It was not best time.

In Nov 2024, he is moving out from Jupiter -Ketu in September to Jupiter Venus, which is still better. On the day of the election, he is Jupiter-Venus-Venus dasha and all the kaksha scores are for Jupiter and Venus are 1. Overall score is 7 with only Saturn 0 points. Transiting Venus will be at 27 degrees on his natal moon aspects the 10th house and transiting retrograde Jupiter will be at 25 degrees in 10th house. Both dasha and subdasha lords aspects the 10th house. Jupiter in Chitta activates Mars in 1st house and Venus in Punarvasu, return of light activates 10th house.

He is running Cancer- Virgo- Taurus. This is not as strong as Gemini Cancer that he ran in 2016 but it is relatively positive as some of raja yogas are activated. He has AK-Amk raja yoga in D9.

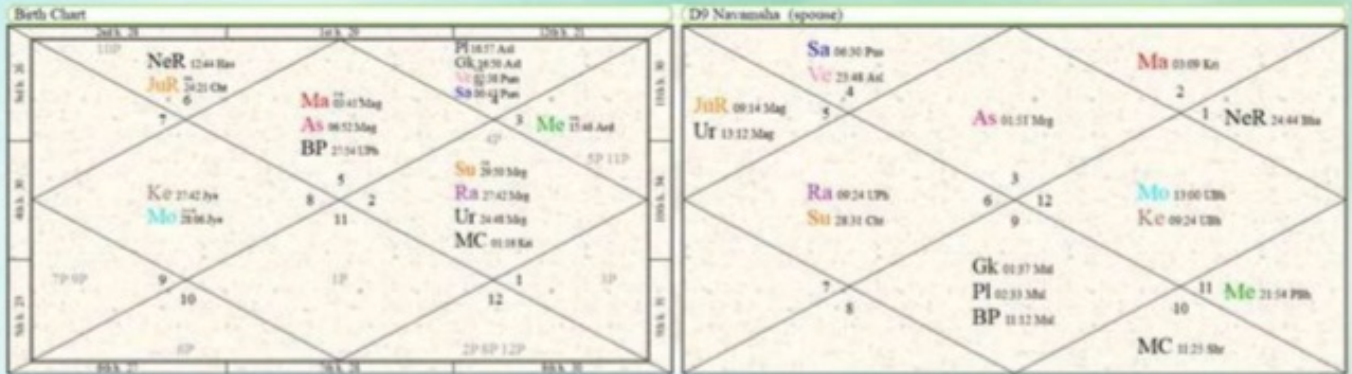

To sum up, it cannot be taken for granted that either candidate can win easily astrologically. Kamala is born in Full Moon with Rahu Ketu Mooltrikona. Trump is born on lunar eclipse with exalted Rahu and Ketu. He also stationary Jupiter as well. Though nataly both dashas are strong, I give Trump the benefit because of better transits.
